Kushiroshitsugen Station
A log cabin style unique station. It looks like a red-crowned crane spreading its wings out.

Views from Yuhi Norokko Train

You can enjoy breathtaking scenery depending on the season and time.

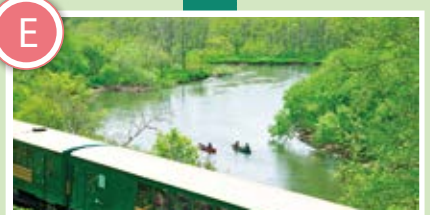

Shibecha Museum "Nita-to"
(About 15 mins walk from Toro Sta)

Finally, arrived at Toro Station. There is a small observatory near the station and you can see the small lakes and marsh far in the distance from there.

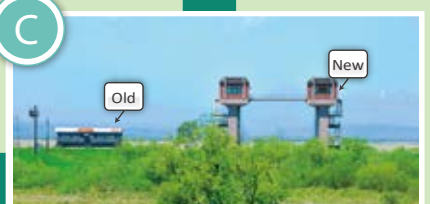

If you are lucky, you may find the Ezo deer, north fox and white-tailed eagle.

The train runs along the meandering Kushiro River. You can sometimes see people enjoying canoeing from the train window.

Passing through the Kushiroshitsugen Station, there are many big curves. Passing through the Hosooka Station, you will see the Lake Takkobu on the right side.

An old water gate and a new water gate built in 1990 are standing together in Iwabokki area which has both Kushiro River and Shinkushiro River.
