

Important Notice

Isn't your behavior dangerous when taking photos?

Trains cannot stop suddenly.

A collision with a train may result in a fatal accident.

(There was a train accident that a foreign tourist was killed in Hokkaido.)

Follow the rules below and enjoy your trip in Hokkaido.

It's illegal! Keep off tracks!

Do not enter train tracks even from railway crossings or areas without fences. If you engage in dangerous behaviors, you may be punished by the Japanese law.

Do not stop and take photos at railway crossings!

When you go through a railway crossing, please do so without stopping.

Do not put your body or smartphones out to the track side until the train stops completely!

When a train is arriving, it is very dangerous! Please wait at the back of the platform until the train stops.
